Student Marital Status/Tax Conflict 2023-2024

The Financial Aid Office (FAO) has completed an initial review of your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Your marital status that you reported on the FAFSA does not appear to agree with your tax return filing status that you reported on the FAFSA. If one of these items is incorrect, you will need to make a correction to your FAFSA.

If your marital status and tax filing status is correct, you will need to amend your tax return or provide a statement from your tax accountant or Internal Revenue Service (IRS) confirming you filed correctly.

Your financial aid file will not be processed until corrections or documentation is provided to our office. If you have any questions please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Thank you,

Financial Aid Office
