Parent Marital Status/Tax Conflict 2023-2024

The Financial Aid Office (FAO) has completed an initial review of your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Your parents' marital status that you reported on the FAFSA does not appear to agree with your parents' tax return filing status that you reported on the FAFSA. If one of these items is incorrect, you will need to make a correction to your FAFSA.

If your parents' marital status and parents' tax filing status is correct, your parent(s) will need to amend their tax return(s) or provide a statement from their tax accountant or Internal Revenue Service (IRS) confirming the parent filed correctly.

Your financial aid file will not be processed until corrections or documentation is provided to our office. If you have any questions please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Thank you,

Financial Aid Office
