ACCEPTABLE COMPUTER USE POLICY

I. General Principles

- A. This policy governs the use of computers, networks, and other computing resources at UA Cossatot. These resources are provided by the college to enhance its mission and to provide access to local, national, and international facilities in achieving these goals. The college is committed to computing and network systems that effectively meet the needs of its users.
- B. Individuals who are granted computing accounts or who use computing resources at the college accept the responsibilities that accompany such access. Each user is expected to use college accounts and resources for educational, research, or administrative purposes; except as otherwise provided in this policy, activities unrelated to these purposes are prohibited. Use of computing resources in violation of the regulations set forth in this policy will be reviewed through established college procedures for student and employee misconduct. Restrictions imposed on usage of computer and network systems may be challenged through the same procedures.
- C. The college is committed to intellectual and academic freedom in connection with its computing and network resources. Computers and networks can provide access to resources on and off campus, including the ability to communicate with other users worldwide. Such open access is a privilege, much like access to books in the library, and requires that individual users act responsibly. Use of computing and network resources should always be legal and ethical, reflect academic honesty, and show restraint in the consumption of shared resources. It should demonstrate respect for intellectual property, ownership of data, system security mechanisms, the right to personal privacy, and to the right of individuals to freedom from intimidation and harassment.
- D. All federal and state laws, as well as general college regulations and policies, are applicable to the use of computing resources. These include, but are not limited to, the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g; the Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510 et seq.; the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act, Ark. Code Ann. §§

25-19-101 et seq.; and state and federal compute fraud statutes, 18 U.S.C. § 1030 and Ark. Code Ann. §§ 5-41-101 et seq. Illegal reproduction of software and other intellectual property protected by U.S. copyright laws and by licensing agreements may result in civil and criminal sanctions.

II. Administration of Computing Resources

A. In General

1. The college, in accordance with state and federal law and the policies of the UA Cossatot Board of Visitors and the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees, may control access to its information and the devices on which it is stored, manipulated, and transmitted.
2. The college has the responsibility to: (a) develop, implement, maintain, and enforce appropriate security procedures to ensure the integrity and privacy of individual and institutional information, however stored; (b) uphold all copyrights, patents, licensing agreements, and rules of organizations that supply information resources.
3. Responsibility for administering the college's computing and network resources and for the security of these resources rests with the Department of Information Systems Support (DISS) and units designated in writing by DISS.

B. System Administrators

1. A systems administrator is any person designated, within any campus unit, to maintain, manage, and provide security for shared multi-user computer resources, including computers, networks, and servers.
2. System administrators shall perform their duties fairly, in cooperation with the user community and college administrators. They shall adhere to this policy and all other pertinent college rules and regulations, shall respect the privacy of users to the greatest extent possible, and shall refer disciplinary matters to appropriate college officials.

C. Data Collection

COLLEGE POLICY 465

Continued

No information shall be routinely collected that is not required by system administrators in the direct performance of their duties, such as routine backup for system recovery.

D. Privacy of Electronic Files

1. Users do not own accounts on college computers but are granted the privilege of exclusive use of their accounts. Use of college computing resources for storage or transmission of data does not alter any ownership interest of the user in that data. Users are entitled to privacy regarding their computer communications and stored data.
2. College officials will access electronic files, including e-mail files, only under one or more of the following conditions:
 - a. The user consents in writing to such access.
 - b. There is a valid search warrant or court order, or a request for electronic records that are open to public inspection under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.
 - c. There exists an emergency situation in which the physical safety and/or well-being of person(s) may be affected or college property may be damaged or destroyed. Responsibility for authorizing access rests with the Director of DISS, a Vice Chancellor, or Chancellor.
 - d. There exists reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of law or college policy is occurring or has occurred. Access will take place only after a reasonable effort has been made to obtain consent. Responsibility for authorizing access rests with the Director of DISS, a Vice Chancellor, or Chancellor.
 - e. Access is necessary for maintenance of computers, networks, data, and storage systems; to maintain the integrity of the computer, network, or storage system; or to protect the rights or property of the college or other users.

Continued

Authorized personnel may routinely monitor and log usage data, such as network session connection times and end-points, CPU and disk utilization for each user, security audit trails, and network loading. In all cases, the privacy rights of users shall be protected to the greatest extent possible.

E. The Arkansas Freedom of Information Act

1. The electronic files, including e-mail files, of college employees are potentially subject to public inspection and copying under the state Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), Ark. Code Ann. §§ 25-19-101 et seq.
2. The FOIA defines “public records” to include “data compilations in any form, required by law to be kept or otherwise kept, which constitute a record of the performance or lack of performance of official functions which are or should be carried out by a public official or employee [or] a governmental agency....” Ark. Code Ann. § 25-19-103(1). All records maintained in public offices or by public employees within the scope of their employment are presumed to be public records. Id. various exceptions apply. See Ark. Code Ann. § 25-19-105.

F. Education Records

1. Records containing information directly related to a student are confidential and protected from public disclosure by the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C § 1232g, and the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act, Ark. Code Ann. § 25-19-105(b)(2).
2. No one shall access any such records maintained in an electronic format or disclose or distribute their contents in any manner inconsistent with federal and state law and college regulations.

III. Use of Computing Resources

A. In General

Continued

This section does not cover every situation involving the proper or improper use of college computing resources; however, it does set forth some of the responsibilities that a person accepts if he or she chooses to use those resources. The purpose of this section is to establish rules for the benefit of all users and encourage responsible use of computing resources.

B. Use Without Authorization Prohibited

1. No one shall (a) connect with or otherwise use any college computer, modem, network, or other computing resource without proper authorization; (b) assist in, encourage, or conceal any unauthorized use, or attempted unauthorized use, of any college computer, modem, network, or other computing resource; Continued or (c) misrepresent his or her identity or relationship to the college to obtain access to computing resources.

2. Users shall use only those computing and network resources that have been authorized for their use and must identify computing work with their own names or an approved means of identification so that responsibility for the work can be determined and users contacted, if necessary.

C. Accounts

1. Users shall use their accounts for the purposes for which they are established, as well as personal communications. Accounts and other college computing resources shall not be used for personal financial gain or benefit or for the benefit of organizations not related to the college, except: (a) in connection with scholarly pursuits, such as faculty publishing activities; or (b) in accordance with college policy on outside consulting for compensation.
2. Users shall not subvert restrictions associated with their accounts, such as quotas and levels of access.
3. No one shall give any password for any college computer or network to any unauthorized person, nor obtain any other person's password by any unauthorized means. Users are responsible for the use of their computer accounts and shall not allow others access to their accounts, through sharing passwords or otherwise. Users should take advantage of system-provided protection measures to prevent such access.

Continued

4. When a user ceases to be a member of the campus community or is assigned a new position and/or different responsibilities within the college, his or her account and access authorization shall be reviewed. A user shall not use facilities, accounts, access codes, privileges, or information for which he or she is not authorized.

D. Security and Related Matters

1. No one shall (a) knowingly endanger or compromise the security of any college computer, network facility, or other computing resource or willfully interfere with others' authorized computer usage, (b) attempt to circumvent data protection schemes, uncover security loopholes, or decrypt secure data; (c) modify or reconfigure or attempt to modify or reconfigure any software or hardware of any college computer or network facility, no matter where located, or to interfere with others' legitimate use of any such computing resource.

2. No one shall attempt to access, copy, or destroy programs or files that belong to other users or to the college without prior authorization, nor shall anyone use college computing resources for unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications.
3. No one shall create, run, install, or knowingly distribute a computer virus, Trojan Horse, or other surreptitiously destructive program, e-mail, or data via any college computer or network facility, regardless of whether demonstrable harm results.
4. Users shall not place confidential information in computers without protecting it appropriately. The college cannot guarantee the privacy of computer files, e-mail, or other information stored or transmitted by computer; moreover, the college may access such information in accordance with Part II of this policy. Persons who have access to confidential or sensitive information shall disclose it only to the extent authorized by the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act, the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act, and other applicable laws, and only in connection with official college business.
5. Users shall not knowingly or recklessly perform any act that will interfere with the normal operation of computers, terminals, peripherals, or networks and shall not intentionally waste or overload computing resources.

E. Intellectual Property

No one shall copy, install, use, or distribute through college computing resources any photographs, logos, images, graphics, graphic elements, audio, video, software, html markup, data files, or other information in violation of U.S. copyright, trademark, or patent laws or applicable licensing agreements. It is the user's responsibility to become familiar with the terms and requirements of any such laws or agreements. This subsection does not apply to any material that is in the public domain.

F. User Communications

1. Users assume full responsibility for messages that they transmit through college computers and network facilities.

2. No one shall use the college's computing resources to transmit fraudulent, defamatory, or obscene messages, or any material prohibited by law.
3. No one shall use the college's computing and network resources to:
(a) annoy, harass, threaten, intimidate, terrify, or offend another person by conveying offensive language or images or threats of bodily harm to the recipient or the recipient's immediate family; (b) repeatedly contact another person to annoy or harass, whether or not any actual message is communicated, and the recipient has expressed a desire for the contact to cease; (c) repeatedly contact another person regarding a matter for which one does not have a legal right to communicate (such as debt collection), once the recipient has provided reasonable notice that he or she desires such contact to cease; (d) disrupt or damage the academic, research, administrative, or related pursuits of another person; or (e) invade the privacy, academic or otherwise, of another person or threaten such an invasion.
4. Users shall comply with this policy as well as the regulations and policies of newsgroups, lists, and other public forums through which they disseminate messages.
5. Users shall not (a) initiate or propagate electronic chain letters; (b) engage in spamming or other indiscriminate mass mailings to newsgroups, mailing lists, or individuals; (c) forge communications to make them appear to originate from another person, e.g., spoofing; or (d) engage in resourceintensive activities unrelated to college functions, e.g., online role playing games (RPGs), listening to internet radio stations, connecting to any peer-to-peer file sharing network, etc.

G. Priority in Use of Computing Facilities

1. In college libraries and general-access computer labs, or in any other environment in which users must share computing resources, priority shall be given to users engaged in activities directly related to the college's mission, e.g., completing course assignments or engaging in research. The libraries and computer labs may adopt regulations to implement this policy and to encourage cooperation among users of the same equipment.

2. Use of electronic messaging systems for non-course work is not permitted in libraries and general-access computer labs when others are waiting to use the equipment.

H. Home Pages and Listserve Lists

1. Academic and administrative departments, registered campus organizations, and other entities may request the DISS create them a home page on the college's web server.
2. The following individuals or groups are eligible to establish a listserv list using college computing resources: (a) faculty or staff members, with the written approval of the appropriate department head; (b) registered student organizations.
3. Approval for a list must be obtained from the appropriate system administrator. If resources are available, such approval shall be granted unless the proposed list (a) duplicates an existing list or (b) appears to serve a purpose unrelated to the college's mission. The college neither controls the content of lists nor assumes any responsibility for their content.

IV. Enforcement of Sanctions

- A. System administrators are responsible for protecting the system and users from abuses of this policy. Pursuant to this duty, system administrator may (1) formally or informally discuss the matter with the offending party, (2) temporarily revoke or modify access privileges, or (3) refer the matter to the appropriate disciplinary authority.
- B. Any violation of this policy may result in the revocation or suspension of access privileges. Imposition of such a sanction is within the discretion of the DISS or the appropriate academic or administrative unit.
- C. Any violation of this policy is misconduct for purposes of the student code of conduct, the college personnel policies and may be punished accordingly.
- D. Any offense that violates local, state, or federal laws may result in the immediate loss of all college computing and network privileges and may be referred to the appropriate college disciplinary authority and/or law enforcement agencies.
