

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

UA Cossatot complies with the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and informs students of their rights under FERPA. Students receive the following notice of student rights under FERPA on an annual basis.

A student at UA Cossatot has the following rights with regard to his or her education records:

1. To inspect and review all education records pertaining to him or her.
2. That the following information, which is considered to be directory information, will be subject to public disclosure unless the student informs the Registrar in writing before the end of the first week of classes each semester that he or she does not want any or all of these types of information disclosed: address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.
3. To request the amendment of his or her education records to ensure that they are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of his or her privacy or other rights.
4. To consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in his or her education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorized disclosure without consent.
