Thank you for joining the process to accredit your program with the National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER). We are convinced that this process will help in building a safe, productive and sustainable workforce of trained professionals.

Congratulations! After review of University of Arkansas Cossatot, it was determined that your program has been approved for a three-year accreditation period as an NCCER Accredited Training and Education Facility under the sponsorship of Arkansas Department of Career Education.

By achieving accreditation, you have shown your commitment to providing your students with nationally recognized training preferred by industry professionals.

As your Sponsor, we are dedicated to the success of your students and instructors. The NCCER National website www.nccer.org offers tools, forms, and access to the Automated National Registry (ANR).

Please contact our office at 501-682-1125 if you have additional questions.

Sincerely,
